REPORTING PERIOD: JANUARY 1 TO DECEMBER 31, 2022

REPORT DATE: JANUARY 23, 2023

INTRODUCTION

Issuers are required to report on their implementation of the new Code of Best Corporate Practices of Colombia to the Financial Superintendence of Colombia (SFC, for the Spanish original) by means of this Report on Implementation of Best Corporate Practices.

The purpose of this report is to inform the securities market on each issuer's implementation or non-implementation of the Code. To this effect, following each recommendation there are three boxes for YES, NO and N/A, as well as a blank space for your answer, as follows:

If the answer is yes, the issuer should briefly describe how it has been implemented. If the answer is no, the issuer should explain the reasons why it has not been adopted.

The N/A response only applies to issuers that are unable to adopt the recommendation for legal reasons. In this case, you should indicate the exact regulation that prevents its adoption.

Since some of the recommendations are comprised by a series of specific aspects, it should be noted that the recommendation is only held to be implemented if all the aspects that form part of it have been implemented, except when an aspect has not been implemented for legal reasons, in which case such reasons must be indicated.

Each recommendation includes a box to indicate the date on which it was implemented for the first time. An additional box is provided to record the date of any amendments made.

Lastly, when by its nature the issuer does not have the specific governance body mentioned in the recommendation, it shall be understood that it makes reference to the organization's body that is equivalent or that serves a similar purpose.

4.6. For the exercise of this right, the corporation has a written procedure that fulfills the specific provisions of recommendation 4.6.

4.6 The measure is implemented YES NO N/A

YES. Briefly explain:

Article 99 of GEB’s Company Bylaws establishes the following procedure for performance of specialized audits, which according to recommendation 4.6 includes the following topics:

- i. The reasons why the corporation defined a percentage of less than five percent (5%): According to the aforementioned article, the minimum percentage to request a specialized audit is 5% of subscribed shares, and consequently this item does not apply.
- ii. The mandatory requirements in order to request a Specialized Audit are that it must be in writing, justified, delimited by topic and in time, and a recommendation of a possible auditor. According to article 99: ‘(...) The request for the specialized audit must be made in writing, indicating the reasons for requesting it, the facts and operations to be audited, the duration of the audit, and indicating three (3) firms of recognized reputation and track record that would be able to perform the audit (...).’
- iii. The corporation’s duty to reply in writing, through its Board of Directors, to the shareholder inquiries as soon as possible: ‘(...) Within ten (10) business days the Board of Directors shall reply to the request, indicating which of the submitted firms was selected to perform the audit, and the start date of the audit. If the Board of Directors refuses to perform a specialized audit, it must justify the reasons for such refusal. If the specialized audit is performed, its results shall be initially submitted to the CEO (...).’
- iv. The mechanism to appoint the respective auditor: ‘(...) The request for the specialized audit must be made in writing, indicating the reasons for requesting it, the facts and operations to be audited, the duration of the audit, and indicating three (3) firms of recognized reputation and track record that would be able to perform the audit (...) Within the term of ten (10) business days the Board of Directors shall reply to the request, indicating which of the submitted firms was selected to perform the audit, and the start date of the audit. (...)

v. Who is to take on the cost of the Specialized Audit: '(...) in specialized audits, the cost and responsibility shall be on the account of the shareholders and investors who requested the audit (...)

vi. Precise deadlines for each stage or step of the procedure: In addition to the 10 days granted to the Board of Directors to reply to the request and approve the firm responsible for performing the audit, a term of 15 days is granted to report its results. '(...) Such results shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors, and within the following fifteen (15) days, they shall be presented to the shareholders or investors who requested the special audit (...)

The aforementioned article 99 of the Company Bylaws states the following: '(...) Specialized Audits: Shareholders representing at least five percent (5%) of subscribed shares, and investors representing at least twenty five percent (25%) of bonds outstanding, may request the CEO to perform specialized audits, the cost of which shall be on the account of the shareholders or investors who requested the audit. The request for the specialized audit must be made in writing, indicating the reasons for requesting it, the facts and operations to be audited, the duration of the audit, and indicating three (3) firms of recognized reputation and track record that would be able to perform the audit. When the percentage required to request a specialized audit is made up by a plural number of shareholders, the request shall include the name of the appointed representative to coordinate the entire process. Within ten (10) business days the Board of Directors shall reply to the request, indicating which of the submitted firms was selected to perform the audit, and the start date of the audit. If the Board of Directors refuses to perform a specialized audit, it must justify the reasons for such refusal. If the specialized audit is performed, its results shall be initially submitted to the CEO. Such results shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors, and within the following fifteen (15) days, they shall be presented to the shareholders or investors who requested the special audit. In the event any unlawful act is found, the Board of Directors and/or the CEO shall forward the case to the appropriate oversight and control, legal or investigation body.'

The 15 days mentioned in the article cited above means that 15 days after the report has been submitted to the Board of Directors it shall be communicated to the shareholder group that requested the special audit.

Consequently, it has internal procedures to assess any legal incompatibilities and inabilities, as well as a candidate's suitability for the needs of the Board of Directors. These procedures evaluate a set of criteria that the candidates' functional and personal profiles must meet, and verify their compliance with certain objective requirements to become a member of the Board of Directors, and certain additional requirements to be considered an independent member.

16.5. In addition to the independence requirements set out in Law 964 of 2005, the corporation has voluntarily adopted a more rigorous definition of independence than that of said law. Such definition has been accepted as a frame of reference in the regulation of the Board of Directors and includes, among other requirements to be assessed, any relationships or links of any kind of a candidate to become an independent member with any controlling or significant shareholders or their related parties, either domestically or abroad. Furthermore, it requires a double statement of independence: (i) that by the candidate before the corporation, its shareholders, and Senior Management, stated in his/her letter of acceptance, and (ii) that by the Board of Directors with respect to the candidate's independence.

16.5 The measure is implemented YES NO N/A

YES. Briefly explain:

Article 8 of the Rules of the Board of Directors establishes additional criteria for independence to those specified in Law 964/2005. These stricter criteria have been adopted by the company based on the criteria established in the Corporate Governance Code of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). Such independence criteria have been replicated in Article 17 of the Rules of the General Meeting of Shareholders in order to inform shareholders of the independence criteria that must be met by candidates to be nominated as independent members. The following are the independence criteria established by GEB as set forth in Article 8 of the Rules of the Board of Directors: "Article 8.- INDEPENDENT MEMBERS Those appointed as independent members of the Board of Directors of the Company shall, in addition to fulfilling the criteria of applicable law, meet the following requirements:

- a) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties are or have had a business or work relationship with the Company or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries, including those persons who have had such capacity during the last three (3) years prior to his/her appointment, except in the case of the reelection of an independent person.
- b) Not being or having been an employee or director of shareholders who conduct, guide or control the majority of voting rights or determine the majority of the company's management, executive or controlling bodies directly or by means of an agreement over the year immediately before their appointment, nor that of any of its controlling, related or associated institutions.

c) Not being a shareholder who conducts, guides or controls the majority of the Company's voting rights or determines the composition of the majority of its management, executive or controlling bodies directly or by means of an agreement.

d) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties are or have been partners, members of the Board of Directors or contractors in the three (3) years prior to their appointment, of associations or companies that provide advisory or consulting services to the Company or companies that belong to the same economic group as the Company, and such associations or companies receive revenues from such services equal to or greater than four thousand and seventy (4,070) legal monthly minimum wages in force or two percent (2 %) of its total revenue, whichever is greater.

e) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties are employees or directors of a foundation, association or company that receives any contribution or sponsorship from the Company.

f) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties have been a manager, within the last three (3) years from the appointment, of a company in which the Company CEO or any of its Board members form part of the Board of Directors, except when the Board member is an independent member.

g) Not to depend exclusively on the revenues received as professional fees as member of the Company's Board of Directors.

h) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties, receive or have received, nor have a relative within the third degree of consanguinity or spouse who receives or has received any compensation other than professional fees as member of the Board, of the Audit Committee, or any other committee created by the Company's Board of Directors, for twelve (12) continuous months over the last three (3) years prior to their appointment.

i) Neither he/she nor his/her personal related parties are or have been partners or employees, during the last three (3) years prior to his appointment, of the firm appointed as statutory auditor of the Company.

j) The candidate's personal related parties, or the companies of which he/she or they are shareholders, have or have had business relationships for amounts greater than the equivalent of 20% of his/her personal income during the last year, and/or greater than 20% of his/her personal income on average during the last five (5) years prior to the date of his/her election. Paragraph: Personal related parties shall be understood as the spouse or permanent partner of a person, their relatives up to the fourth degree of consanguinity, second degree of affinity and sole civil partner, the companies in which such person or their personal related parties have shareholdings, and the natural or legal persons of which said person, or his/her spouse or permanent partner, or his/her relatives in the second degree of consanguinity, second degree of affinity and sole civil partner, are members of the Board or employees, or have been during the three (3) years immediately prior to the date of the election of said person in the position he/she holds." The Policy on Appointment, Succession and Compensation of the Board of Directors indicates that candidates to become independent members must fulfill the requirements of Colombian securities market laws, as well as those established in the Rules of the General Meeting of Shareholders and of the Board of Directors.

At the ordinary meeting 1658 held on June 24, 2021, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to article 8 of the Rules of the Board of Directors, to include a double statement of independence: (i) the independence of the candidate with respect to the Company, its shareholders and members of Senior Management, by means of his/her Acceptance Letter, and (ii) the statement of the Board of Directors on the independence of the candidates nominated as such, once the Corporate Governance and Sustainability Committee and the Compensation Committee have submitted the report on compliance with the independence criteria.

YES. Briefly explain:

Different corporate documents contain the procedures to be followed in the event of potential conflicts of interest.

The Code of Ethics of GEB applies to all Group companies and is binding for all their managers and employees, who adhere to it by signing the Agreement of Adhesion to the Code of Ethics. It establishes guidelines to determine whether a specific act involves a conflict of interests, as well as the procedure to be followed and who to report such potential conflict of interests to.

Also, Title VII of the Corporate Governance Code establishes the following: "VII. On conflicts of interest and transactions with related parties.

a) General Provisions: The rules for managing conflicts of interest and transactions with related parties are defined in the Company's Code of Ethics, the Conflict of Interest Management Policy and the Transactions with Related Parties Policy.

GEB S.A. ESP's Code of Ethics establishes that in the event of a conflict of interest, or when in doubt of its potential existence, the person who has such conflict of interest must abstain from participating either directly or indirectly in the activities and decisions related to the situation that creates such conflict of interest. In addition, the person must also report the situation in full detail and in writing to his/her respective direct supervisor.

In the particular case of the members of the Board of Directors, they have the duty of reporting any direct or indirect relations with the Company, suppliers, clients or any other stakeholder that may lead to situations of conflict of interest.

The members of the Board of Directors shall report to the Board of Directors any situation that creates a conflict of interest, in which case GEB S.A. ESP's provisions on conflicts of interest management shall apply. Any doubt on whether an actual conflict of interest exists shall not exempt a member of the Board of Directors from the obligation of abstaining from participating in the respective activities and decisions."

The Policy on Managing Conflicts of Interest establishes the following procedure in the event of a potential conflict of interests: "Procedure

The following procedure shall be followed to manage conflicts of interest:

- i. For managers - members of the Boards of Directors and Registered Agents:
 - a. Suspend any action or direct or indirect intervention in the activities and decisions related to the potential conflict of interest.
 - b. Report the potential conflict of interests to the Compliance Office of GEB, or the area that performs such duties, through the Secretary of the Board of Directors, by filling out the form established for such effect (Annex 1), attaching all the information necessary to enable establishing whether a conflict of interests exists or not.
 - c. The Compliance Office shall report the situation to the Audit and Risk Committee of the Board of Directors, which will assess whether a conflict of interest exists or not, and shall classify the conflict of interests (as potential or actual, permanent or sporadic).

d. If the Audit and Risk Committee determines that a conflict of interests does exist, the person involved shall refrain from participating in the discussions or decisions on the matter in question and shall leave the meeting.

e. The Audit and Risk Committee shall recommend to the Board of Directors the measures that must be taken to manage and handle the issue.

f. In the case of Board members, if the Audit and Risk Committee believes that a permanent conflict of interests exists that may affect overall Company operations, it shall report this situation to the General Meeting of Shareholders, which shall decide whether or not to remove the member from the post. If the permanent conflict of interests affects only one operation, the Audit and Risk Committee will recommend to the Board of Directors the measures to manage it in the terms of subsection (e) above.

g. If a possible conflict of interests is reported during a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a Board Committee, the member involved shall temporarily leave the meeting, and a subsequent meeting of the Audit and Risk Committee will review whether or not such conflict of interests exists.

The measures may include the following:

(i) The Manager must refrain from participating in the situation that gives rise to the conflict of interests.

(ii) If his/her participation in the decision and vote is considered relevant, prior authorization from the General Meeting of Shareholders must be obtained, which shall be granted on a case-by-case basis, as long as it does not run against the Company's interests.

When the manager is a shareholder, he/she must refrain from participating in such decision and his/her shareholdings will not be taken into account for the effects of calculating the majority of deciding votes.

The above does not exempt the Manager from providing the General Meeting of Shareholders all the information it requires regarding the conflict of interests and to refrain from participating in any actions that may involve a conflict of interests.

ii. For the Group General Auditor, the Compliance Officer or any member of the Ethics Committee

a. Suspend any action or direct or indirect intervention in the activities and decisions related to the potential conflict of interest.

b. Report the potential conflict of interests to the Audit and Risk Committee of the Board of Directors through the Compliance Office, using the form established for such effect (Annex 1), attaching all the information necessary to enable establishing whether a conflict of interests exists or not. The Committee shall take all measures required to manage and handle the issue and shall classify the conflict of interests (as potential or actual, permanent or sporadic).

c. The Audit and Risk Committee shall recommend to the employee's direct supervisor the measures that must be taken to manage and handle the issue.

d. In the case of a permanent conflict of interests that may affect the Company's overall operations, the nominating party will be requested to assess whether it is appropriate for the employee to remain at the Company. If a permanent conflict of interests affects only one operation, the Audit and Risk Committee will recommend the measures to be taken by the immediate supervisor to manage such conflict, in the terms of subsection (c) above.

 iii. For Employees: When non-management employees face a potential conflict of interests, the procedure specified in the Code of Ethics shall apply, which must be consistent with the provisions of this Policy.'

21.2. The procedure for the management of conflicts of interest makes a distinction about their nature as occasional or permanent. If they are occasional, the applicable procedure indicates the rules and steps to be followed, which should be relatively easy to implement and hard to avoid for those affected. In the case of permanent conflicts of interest, the procedure stipulates that if the situation affects the corporation's overall operations, it must be regarded as a cause for the obligatory resignation of those affected, for it makes it impossible for them to hold the position.

24.7 The measure is implemented YES NO N/A

YES. Briefly explain:

The CEO's compensation is a fixed salary, plus an incentive tied to performance (variable component), based on fulfillment of objectives approved by the Board of Directors, which must not be greater than the top limit established by the Board of Directors.

Payment of the variable component, both for the CEO and other Company employees, is tied to two types of objectives: the first, referred to as the door key, determines whether or not there are grounds for payment of the performance bonus, and the second is related to specific objectives measured by ranges of fulfillment, which are rated based on a weighted scale of the indicators; this implies that the bonus is granted proportionally to the level of fulfillment. In this regard, the mechanism approved by the Board of Directors establishes a top limit for compensation, which must not be surpassed under any circumstance.

In 2017, the Board of Directors approved the Compensation Policy, which covers all employees of Grupo Energía Bogotá S.A. ESP, and establishes all the elements that form part of compensation: a) Fixed compensation, b) Variable compensation (short and long term) and c) Benefits.

According to subsection 37 of article 66 of the Company Bylaws, a duty of the Board of Directors is to "approve and monitor adequate internal control systems, the Risk Policy, and to periodically monitor the main risks the Company is exposed to, including those taken on in off-balance-sheet operations."

Approve and monitor adequate internal control systems and risk policies, and periodically monitor the main risks the Company is exposed to, including those taken on in off-balance-sheet operations.

Additionally, subsection a) of Title IV of the Corporate Governance Code states that: 'The Board of Directors, with the support of the Audit and Risk Committee, is responsible for approving the general strategies and policies related to the internal control system, as well as for monitoring their appropriate implementation.

GEB's Risk Management Policy states the commitment of its companies to promote and develop the risk management culture at all levels of the organization. By means of educational and training activities, task groups, and dissemination both at management and operating levels, under the leadership of the risk management area, the risk managers and the leaders of the organization must ensure that the teams are aware of and understand the risks they are exposed to, and promote their participation in specific risk treatment activities in order to control risks.

Consequently, GEB has designed and implemented a comprehensive system to manage corporate risks in order to assure achievement of the objectives and performance of the activities required for adequate risk management. The system defines a structure of responsibilities for all those involved, including the CEO, the Board of Directors, and the Audit and Risk Committee. The roles and responsibilities related to risk management are defined in the corporate Risk Management procedure. GEB's risk management system also identifies and manages risks at the strategic and business process levels. YES. Briefly explain:

According to subsection 37 of article 66 of the Company Bylaws, a duty of the Board of Directors is to "approve and monitor adequate internal control systems, the Risk Policy, and to periodically monitor the main risks the Company is exposed to, including those taken on in off-balance-sheet operations."

Subsection 37 of article 17 of the Rules of the Board of Directors defines the following duties of this body: '37. Approve and monitor adequate internal control systems and risk policies, and periodically monitor the main risks the Company is exposed to, including those taken on in off-balance-sheet operations.'

Additionally, subsection a) of Title IV of the Corporate Governance Code states that 'The Board of Directors, with the support of the Audit and Risk Committee, is responsible for approving the general strategies and policies related to the internal control system, as well as for monitoring their appropriate implementation.'

The Board of Directors of GEB has the power to make decisions based on a group policy, taking into consideration the interests of the Company and its subsidiaries. In this regard, subsection 30 of article 66 of the Company Bylaws states: 'Make decisions based on a group policy, taking into consideration the interests of the Company and its subsidiaries.'

Additionally, the Business Group Agreement acknowledges the conglomerate's control architecture that identifies the three lines of defense and separates the roles, establishing the roles of Group General Auditor and Compliance Officer.

The Business Group Agreement states the following:

'GEB's commitment to its stakeholders is to offer an adequate environment of control. The GEB S.A. E.S.P. Control Architecture Model is based on three lines of defense, which have the following characteristics: (i) the first line of defense, exercised by employees, enables the identification and management of risks (control/self-control) and the implementation of corrective actions to address any shortcomings of the processes and controls; (ii) the second line of defense consists of supervising and monitoring the effectiveness of the first-line controls, as well as providing counseling, assistance, prevention, institutionalization, detection (investigation) and reaction, and execution of the corporate defense program, performed through the Compliance Department of GEB S.A. E.S.P. and each of the GEB companies; and, (iii) the third line of defense involves independent assurance through internal and external audits, as well as the design, assurance and implementation of audit plans for key organizational processes (Group Auditor + specialized auditors) (...)'

It also acknowledges that the control environment should be exercised from top to bottom, whereby the parent company irrigates the guidelines and policies on this matter towards the subsidiaries, as follows:

'(...) For this, from the Group's perspective, the following is provided:

- The Group's Companies must ensure prudent risk management, as an integral component of the development of their activities, and honor the provisions of the Risk Management Policy under the guidelines indicated by the GEB S.A. E.S.P. Risk Management Department, under the principle of self-control.
- The Group's General Auditor, in performance of its duties, and following the guidelines of the Board of Directors of GEB S.A. E.S.P., must promote an ethical culture based on the highest standards that generates trust in the market and stakeholders. It shall exercise its functions independently, performing material control under the framework of the third line of defense, and will report hierarchically to the Audit and Risk Committee of the Board of Directors of GEB S.A. E.S.P. The GEB Companies' internal audit areas must provide independent and objective assurance (audit) services that add value and improve operations. These report on their activities to the Audit and Risk Committees and to the Boards of Directors of the respective GEB Companies, and to the Group's General Auditor, who in turn reports on relevant events at GEB companies to the Audit and Risk Committee of GEB S.A. ESP. The detailed provisions on the matter that must be applied by the GEB Companies are included in the GEB S.A. E.S.P. Internal Audit Statute.

• The Compliance Department is responsible for working on the detection, investigation, second-line-of-defense reaction and mitigation of risks of corruption and fraud in data management, money laundering and competition, among others.

This Department falls under the responsibility of the Legal, Regulatory and Compliance Vice President of GEB S.A. E.S.P., reports to the Audit and Risk Committee of the Parent Company's Board of Directors, receives reports from Compliance Officers at GEB Companies and strengthens the Business Group's lines of defense.

• All companies must have a Statutory Auditor or External Auditor who certifies the financial information. For this purpose, the Policy on the Appointment of the Statutory Auditor and External Auditor establishes the guidelines that the Group's Companies must follow in this regard.'

Measure No. 26: Risk Management

26.1. The corporation's risk management objectives include those listed under recommendation 26.1

26.1 The measure is implemented YES NO N/A

YES. Briefly explain:

GEB's risk management is based on the principle of self-control, which is why it is the duty of all areas to ensure its proper administration as an integral part of the development of the business activities.

The identification of strategic risks is derived from the identification of events that could hinder or prevent achievement of the objectives defined in the corporate strategy. The assessment and level of exposure to the risks is based on the risk appetite and the criteria on probability and impact defined and accepted by GEB S.A. ESP. As a result of the assessment, once the risk levels have been determined, different strategies are adopted to treat the risks, which may include their elimination, mitigation, transfer or acceptance.

Consolidated reports on the risks of GEB S.A. ESP and Group companies are periodically submitted to the Audit and Risk Committee and the Board of Directors.

The comprehensive risk management of GEB and GEB companies is regulated by the Risk Management Policy. According to the Policy, the following are the objectives of comprehensive risk management:

- Contribute to fulfilling the strategy and the continuous improvement of operations at the Company and its subsidiaries through the identification of risks and the adequate implementation of actions to mitigate impacts and the probability of their occurrence.
- Promote and develop the risk management culture at all levels of the organization.
- Contribute to assuring business continuity through risk management.
- Generate trust among shareholders and stakeholders by reporting with transparency on the risks and the actions implemented to control them.
- Ensure that all investment projects will include risk identification and assessments and that actions will be taken to mitigate them.
- Protect the resources and reputation of the Company and its Group companies.

GEB’s Comprehensive Risk Management process is part of the second line of defense in the Control Architecture defined by GEB, to ensure that the risk management policy and methodologies are known, understood and applied in a correct and timely manner in all processes, in accordance with the company’s needs for risk identification and mitigation. The comprehensive risk management policy also involves reviewing and updating the Group’s risk appetite framework and communicating to all levels and subsidiaries the exposure limits that have been approved by the governance bodies established to such effect, such as the Audit and Risk Committee and the GEB Board of Directors.

Additionally, GEB’s Integrated Management System (IMS) verifies that the processes are carried out in compliance with the corporate guidelines and regulatory requirements, and it aims to promote among employees a culture of quality in service provision, personal self-care, and in general the protection of the environment and the protection of information. Grupo Energía Bogotá has a process-based integrated management system, whose interactions and sequences are represented in a map of processes. The map of processes and its associated information describes the organization and the interactions between the processes of Grupo Energía Bogotá. Each process includes a description of the purpose, scope, sub-processes and outputs involved, which serve as a tool to leverage fulfillment of GEB's Corporate Strategic Plan. Those who work directly for the Group have access to this information. A Risk Manager is designated for each process of the organization, who facilitates the communication and dissemination of the risk management culture, philosophy, policy and procedures.

The risk management culture is strengthened through training and educational events aligned with the education and training needs identified in the Talent Management process and the GEB Academy. Through the latter, in 2022 we have delivered training on relevant risk management topics such as the risk of interruption and business continuity management, occupational safety and health risks, matters related to the operation and aspects related to the Integrated Management System.

In accordance with the provisions of the Business Group Agreement, the Control Architecture of GEB S.A. E.S.P. is based on three lines of defense, which have the following characteristics: (i) the first line of defense, exercised by employees, enables the identification and management of risks (control/self-control) and the implementation of corrective actions to address any shortcomings of the processes and controls; (ii) the second line of defense consists of supervising and monitoring the efficiency of the first-line controls, as well as providing advice, assistance, prevention, institutionalization, detection (investigation) and reaction, and execution of the corporate defense program, performed through the Compliance Department of GEB S.A. E.S.P. and each of the GEB companies; and, (iii) the third line of defense involves independent assurance through internal and external audits, as well as the design, assurance and implementation of audit plans for key organizational processes (Group Auditor + specialized auditors).

Senior Management involves and highlights the responsibilities related to risk management and the establishment of controls at group companies by means of a consolidated risk management report submitted to the Audit and Risk Committee.

Once the report has been submitted to the Audit and Risk Committee, any pending commitments and recommendations are communicated through the Strategic Planning Department to each company for performance and/or implementation, and at subsequent Committee meetings follow up reports are presented on the implementation of the commitments made.

Both operating and management employees of GEB understand their roles in risk management, given that they participate in the activities for the identification, definition and implementation of controls. Such activities are carried out in a participatory and inter-disciplinary manner and are complemented with awareness-raising and training on the risk management methodology. Additionally, the results are communicated to all levels of the organization, and process leaders ensure that their teams are aware of and understand the risks they are exposed to, as well as their participation in the defined treatment actions to avoid, mitigate or transfer risks. They also keep their teams informed about the degree of implementation, the effectiveness of the implemented controls and possible risk materialization events.
